

Horizontal Cable Managers with Open Access

Avalon Horizontal Cable Managers with open access are capable of managing cables on the front and rear of any standard EIA 19" rack or cabinet. These Panels are constructed of a steel panel with plastic D-rings attached. Horizontal D-rings shall snap into panels and vertical D-rings shall be screw mounted to rack. Horizontal panels shall have pass-through holes and shall be available in both front and rear versions and front only versions.

Features

- Modular, snap-in D-rings Provides flexibility for System requirements
- Flexible D-rings Allows easy access to cables for moves , adds and changes .
- Rounded D-rings Prevents cable snags
- Provides ease of installation and cable maintenance
- Available in a variety of styles
- Suitable for large and small cabling installations
- Lightweight, sturdy construction
- Easy to work with while still providing durability

Specifications

- Meets 19" Rack mounted EIA310-D standards
- Metal :Steel construction finish
- Ring Design: 50mm ring dimension
- D-ring mounting options:
Horizontal D-rings snap into these panels only;
Vertical D-rings screw into EIA racks

Applications

- The panels can be used in 19" cabinets for multimedia applications with all copper and fiber optic cables.

Ordering Information

Part No	Description
AN-HCM-OA- 4	19" Horizontal Cable Managers with 4 Rings,1U
AN-HCM-OA- 5	19" Horizontal Cable Managers with 5 Rings,1U

